

NEW MANAGING DIRECTOR

We are proud to announce that Ossi Connectors A/S has employed a new Managing Director, Jorgen Petersen. Jorgen joined our organisation January 2. His former position was as Director for a company manufacturing medical supply material. This experience of production, administration and logistics will provide important knowledge to improve Ossi Connectors as an even stronger and more competitive supplier of interconnection solutions.

The former Director and founder of Ossi Connectors A/S, Ossi Carlson, has decided to retire after more than 30 active years in the company.
